

Belmont Academy Flute Workshop and Master Class

featuring

Dr. Roger Martin

Sunday, April 25th, 2010
Wilson Music Building
Room 121
Belmont University
2:00-5:00 P.M.

A member of the music faculty at Tennessee Tech University since 1989, Roger Martin holds degrees from Virginia Commonwealth University (BM; Flute Performance) and Florida State University (MM; Woodwinds Performance, DM; Flute Performance). Martin has concertized extensively, presenting solo recitals in Canada, the Peoples Republic of China, Hong Kong, and throughout the United States. He has been principal flutist with Cookeville, Tennessee's Bryan Symphony Orchestra (1989-present), the Fargo-Moorhead Symphony (1985-1989), and the Festival Chamber Orchestra of the Breckenridge Music Festival in Colorado (1987-2001). He has also been a featured solo artist with all three of these organizations. In Nashville, Martin has appeared as principal flutist with the Nashville Chamber Orchestra, is a regular sub with the Nashville Symphony (with whom he has appeared as guest principal flutist), and does occasional recording session work. Activities with the Cumberland Quintet (in residence at Tennessee Tech University) include numerous yearly concerts, two compact discs, and performances at national conventions. As a clinician and adjudicator, Martin has been active for the past eighteen years throughout the United States. Previous faculty positions include Minnesota's Moorhead State University (1984-1989) and the University of Missouri-Columbia.
